

MELBOURNE WALK 21 2006

WALK21 2006 MELBOURNE

Homezones go Downtown

The Evolution of Shared Spaces in Switzerland

Christian M. Thomas
 dipl. Architect ETH, PhD
 SECRETARY INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF PEDESTRIANS (IFP)

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF PEDESTRIANS
 Pedestrian Mobility
 Swiss Pedestrian Association

First Generation

Conventional street with pedestrian priority

photo: «Fussverkehr Schweiz»

Aarau AG

photo: «Fussverkehr Schweiz»

HOMEZONE
 conventional measures of traffic calming

Zurich

photo: Stadt Zürich, Dienstleistung Verkehr

Change from homezone to „pedestrian priority zone”
 Switzerland 2002

photo: «Fussverkehr Schweiz»

Second Generation

A street becomes a continuous surface from wall to wall.

Romanshorn TG

photo: «Fussverkehr Schweiz»

Third Generation

Urban square turned into plaza

Biel/Bienne

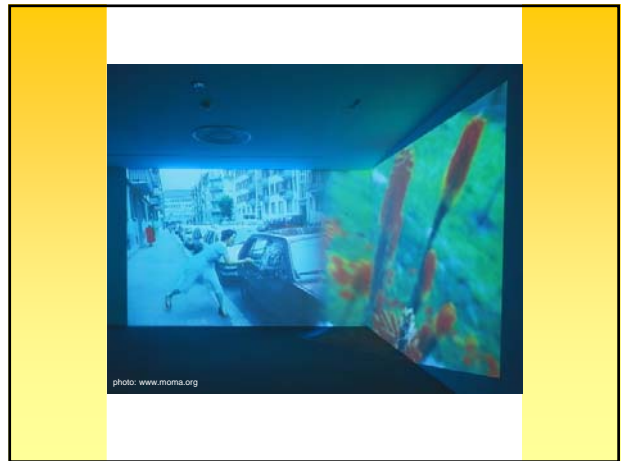

Thank you for your attention.

You find this Powerpoint-Presentation on the Website of the International Federation of Pedestrians (IFP):

www.pedestrians-int.org

➔ More on Pedestrians and Urbanism

More information of pedestrian Priority Zones in Switzerland you find in a growing data bank here:

www.begegnungszonen.ch
(in German, with many pictures)

More on Pedestrians in Switzerland:

www.fussverkehr.ch

More Information about the "urban lounge" in St. Gallen:

www.stadtlounge.ch

Photos: www.stadtlounge.ch (Raffelsen), www.lichtgestaltung.ch (Vogt & Partner), www.wetli.com (Marc Wetti), St. Gallen-Bodensee Tourismus.

Christian M. Thomas
Secretary, International Federation of Pedestrians

INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF PEDESTRIANS

Pedestrian Mobility
Swiss Pedestrian Association